

Tackling Health Inequalities – A Partnership Approach Friday 19th November 2010

This conference aims to look at some practical applications of the thinking which has emerged from the Marmot Review. It will include a series of presentations and case studies and afford opportunity for discussion and engagement. It is being run as part of the Public Health Agency's Focus on Health Inequalities programme.

It takes place from 9.30am – 3.30pm on Friday 19th November 2010 in UNISON, Belfast. The event is free but places are limited. Lunch will be provided.

Conference Speakers

Marmot – Localising and measuring the impact

Tammy Boyce, former Research Fellow for Public Health with the Kings Fund and one of the Marmot Review authors

Procurement as a tool for targeting social need

Patricia McKeown, Regional Secretary, UNISON

Food Procurement – A case study from the West

Seamus Mullan, Health Improvement, Public Health Agency

Not Just Health: Belfast Health and Social Care Trust's role in addressing health inequalities

Leslie Boydell, Associate Medical Director for Public Health, Belfast Health & Social Care Trust

Health & Wellbeing - Who's responsibility.

Sharon Henry, Open University & former DHSSPS

Tackling health inequalities through learning and partnership

Fidelma Carolan, Regional Officer (Lifelong Learning) UNISON

Tackling Health Inequalities – A Partnership Approach

Friday 19th November 9.30am – 3.30pm

Event Booking Form

Title (Mr, Mrs, Ms, Dr) _____

First name _____

Surname _____

Job/Volunteer role _____

Organisation _____

Work address _____

Work telephone number _____

Email _____

Please specify any special dietary or access requirements

Completed forms should be returned by

Fidelma Carolan
UNISON
Galway House
165 York St
Belfast BT15 1AL
Tel : 02890270190 / 07796675826
Email details to f.carolan@unison.co.uk
www.ulearnni.org

Places are limited.

